Dr. Page Signs Because He Can't Dispense with Clothes, but He Does the Best He Can.

Dr. Page would be a day of Eden, as far as fashion goes, if he could only get the advice of Dr. Charles E. Page of Madison, Wis., who is an advocate of the simple life—simple food, simple clothing, simple habits. Here are a few of his suggestions for a wardrobe.

An umbrella to keep off the sun, and a stick to protect the feet and a sunny smile to show how happy you are.

Nothing at all.

A simple coat, a silk skirt and light shoes and shoes.

The best is Dr. Page's own girl, Summer and Winter. It weighs just twenty pounds, and is made of the finest material.

"Let the skin breathe," said the doctor today. "That's the greatest lesson. My friends, I can't tell you how often I see the wearing of a foot rest for any reason. I follow my own teaching as closely as possible, under our present regime, and I know what I'm talking about."

GREAT VICTORY FOR CHAMP CLARK

Speaker Carries California by Sweeping Plurality Over Woodrow Wilson.

By CHAMP CLARK.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—The result in California, New Hampshire, Nevada and New Mexico, four States all in one day, is enough to make any man proud and happy, of course, these four States have not enough delegates to ensure any nomination, but are enough to go a long way in that direction.

It is a considerable distance from California to New Hampshire, and the fact that I have carried these, explains, absolutely the theory, which was somewhat overworked, that I had an opponent outside the States heretofore on Missouri.

It goes without saying that I am profoundly grateful to the Democrats of the quarter of the State named, and I sincerely hope my friends therein will have no cause to regret their action. Whatever happens, I shall always hold this evidence of their confidence and esteem above all price.

I am under obligations to the women of California, exercising for the first time the elective franchise in a national election, who stood by me so loyally.

RAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—With only the scattering rural vote to be heard from the following days were against today to yesterday's presidential primary victory in California.

Boston, has carried California by a plurality of about seven, Champ Clark, the defeated Woodrow Wilson not a Democratic delegation by a vote that may be estimated at 10 to 1. His plurality will reach 50,000.

Robert M. La Follette has polled a total vote of approximately 40,000.

Taft lost San Francisco to Roosevelt by about 3,000.

Taft apparently has been beaten in every election of California, with the possible exception of the election of 1908.

Taft has run a new third in that county since 1908. He placed 2nd in 1908, 3rd in 1910, 4th in 1912.

California's delegation of congressmen will go into the Republican National Convention, headed by Theodore Roosevelt for President.

Bill Heads Delegation.

The Democratic delegation from California will be headed by Theodore B. Bell.

CLARK HAS BIG LEAD IN DELEGATES CHOSEN TO DATE

Will go to Baltimore instructed for Champ Clark.

There will be nothing of uncertainty in the instructions of the Democratic National Convention delegates from this State by which they were elected and the particular pliancy given their specific candidate.

Even though they were the results of a vote that showed entire confidence on the part of fully one-half the qualified electors of California.

The women voted in large numbers. In San Francisco it is estimated about 10,000 of them cast their votes. The women's vote in other portions of the State was in proportion to that cast in San Francisco.

For the first time in the history of American politics a few women have been elected as delegates to a national convention.

Mrs. Frances Fuller, Porter of Los Angeles and Mrs. Josephine H. Smith, of San Jose, have prominent places among those who were elected as delegates to the national convention.

Wilson Badly Beaten.

In the Democratic field the result has been that the friends of Woodrow Wilson, even the house of the friends of "Coke" Clark, Taft, have been badly beaten.

Roosevelt an Easy Winner Over Taft in Primaries of Golden State.

Neither the supposed cast's contrast nor the followers of Bryan were able to do much for Wilson.

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S VOTE WILL BE CAST FOR CHAMP CLARK

CONCORD, N. H., May 15.—The Democrats of New Hampshire are rejoiced today over the action of yesterday's State Convention in expressing a preference for Speaker Champ Clark for President, although here and there some may be found who regret that men personally inclined towards another candidate were selected to designate by a "Clark" convention there is everywhere manifest a disposition to follow the representative citizens of their own word and to accept their pledges to be bound by the preference vote.

The four delegates here are Champ C. Clark of Andover, twice his party's candidate for Governor, Chairman John H. Johnson of the State Convention, William Johnson of Andover, Henry T. Leland, a Nashua attorney, and Eugene E. Reed, former Mayor of Manchester.

They could not be expected to elect the convention to be held in Concord on June 12, as Clark was not even named for Speaker, Clark, as Mayor Reed took the lead in declaring his willingness to be bound by a preferential vote.

"I rise you of word of honor," he said, "Mr. Reed did not state his personal preference. At Wilson headquarters, however, he has been reported as having said that he would support Mr. Clark."

It has also been calculated that the quantity of heat daily conveyed northward by the Gulf Stream is equivalent to that received by 1,500,000 square miles of the earth's surface under the perpendicular sun of the equator.
